MEETINGS ARE MADE BY PEOPLE

Meetings are not just about tables and chairs. They are about people. People have changed. How they work has changed. That is why meetings should change too.

We proudly present the next generation of meetings at the Munich Marriott Hotel. Convinced of the idea that people create meetings, we rethought our entire concept of meetings. Marriott's new meeting generation offers you more exclusive space for work, discussions and networking, in order to make your meetings more concise, productive and profound.

13 state-of-the-art meeting studios, equipped with innovative technology and the appropriate atmosphere, invite you to relax, feel good, and deliver a productive work experience. The space which includes a Ballroom, the Foyer, and Living Room can be combined with the remaining studios to accommodate up to 520 people.
