At The Rocco Forte Collection, we have invested a great deal of time in identifying 1500 key points of service delivery, which we believe will make us the best.

We have devoted significant effort to implementing these via training programmes and in monitoring our performance with independent assessors who specialise in luxury hotels. This philosophy is applied throughout the hotel. We have also invested a great deal in expanding and equipping our conference facilities within each of the hotels and have incorporated additional meeting facilities and a Business Centre within the refurbishment of the Amigo. Similarly, the bedrooms are now equipped with the latest technology and facilities for both business and leisure guests alike.
