The most luxurious hotel in Brussels, Hotel Amigo is located around the corner from the magnificent Grand Place, offering guests unparalleled service and style. Set amongst historic cobbled streets, the hotel features luxurious, contemporary design embellished with stylish Flemish touches.

Rooms are individual in style and feature surrealist prints by Marcel Broodthaers and René Magritte; some have views of the neighbouring historic buildings - the Town Hall, churches and spires of the city. The new Tintin bedrooms and suite feature prints, characters and collectables from Hergé's famous comic books and will delight fans of all ages. The ballroom features separate access and all meeting rooms are equipped with the latest communications technology.
