OUR LOCATION

We're Where It All Happens

Malta has long attracted the attention of travellers – in fact, it has been a melting pot of ideas, cultures and passions for millennia.

Blending Old & New

To this day, the island is a place people choose to visit for inspiration, excitement and to enjoy incredible natural beauty. It is where they come to meet wonderful people, to experience modern Mediterranean cuisine and to explore the cross-roads between old-world charm and a truly cosmopolitan way of life.

The Heart of the Island

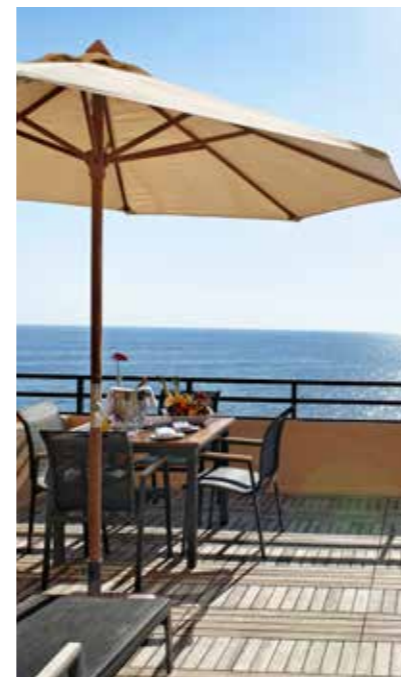

Malta is very much in the centre of the sunny Mediterranean. Conveniently located – and with regular flights to all of Europe's major airports and beyond – it is the ideal place for dynamic MICE events.

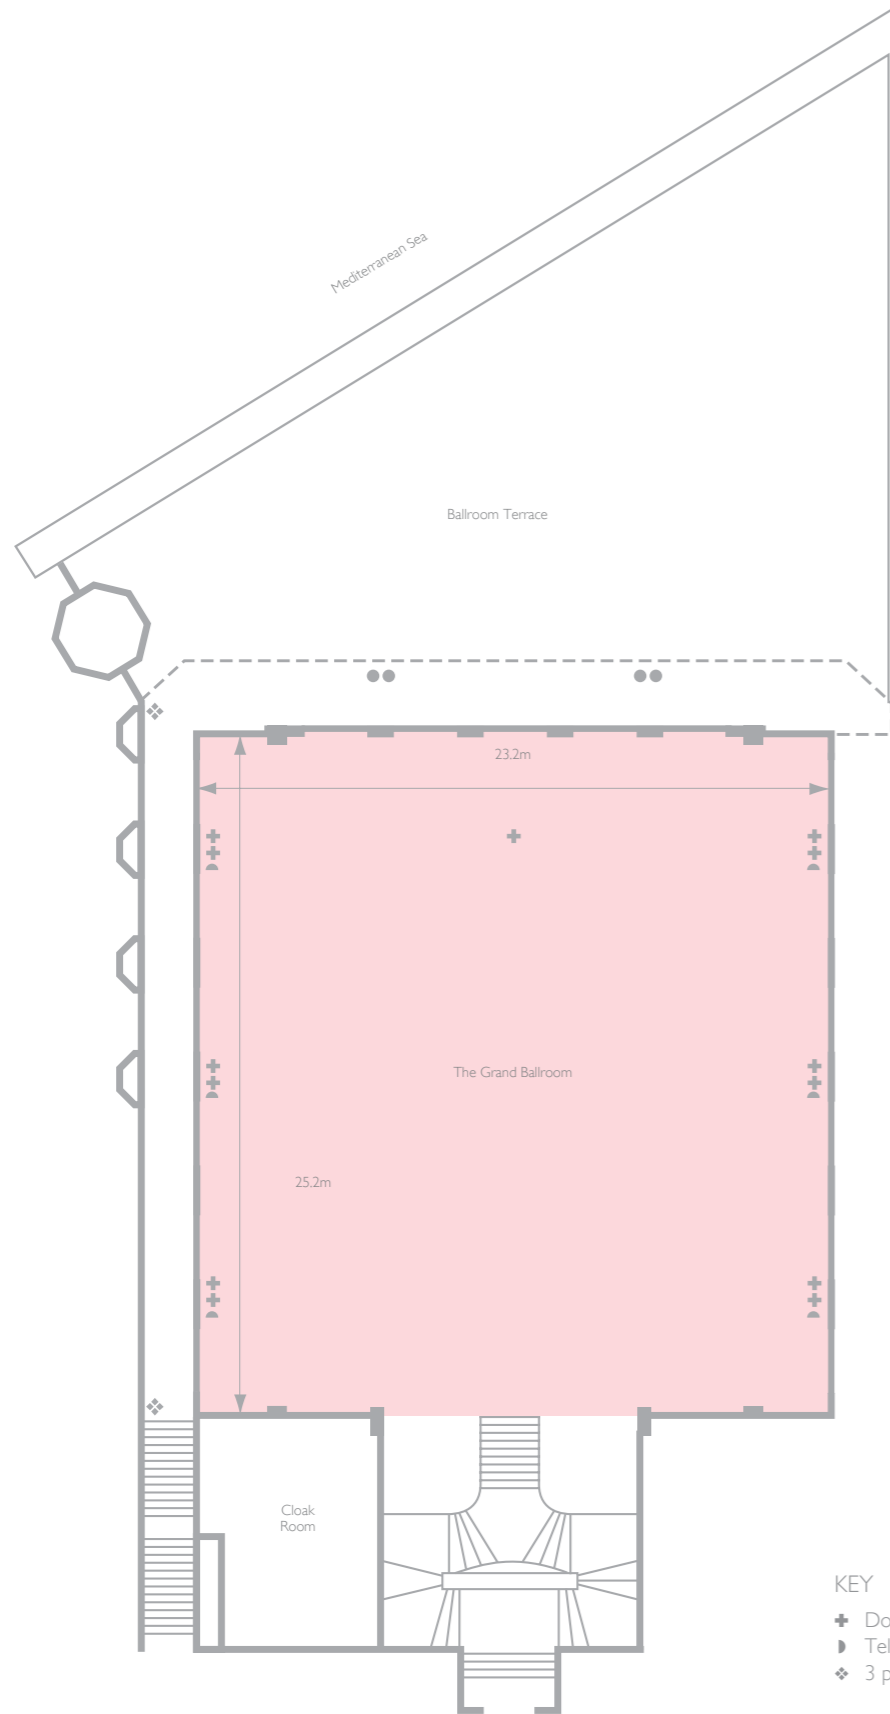

On top of that, St Julian's – the stunning setting for the Radisson Blu Resort, St Julian's – feels like the very heart of this island's nation. Located at the edge of the sea, the hotel promises incredible views of the clear Mediterranean waters and endless opportunities for coastal exploration.

St Julian's is easily one of Malta's most popular areas, with a huge variety of bars, restaurants, nightclubs and boutiques within easy walking distance. At the same time, the hotel is set far enough away to promise complete tranquillity at an out-of-the-way location that means you can make it your own for your conference, event or team building activity.

Central & Convenient

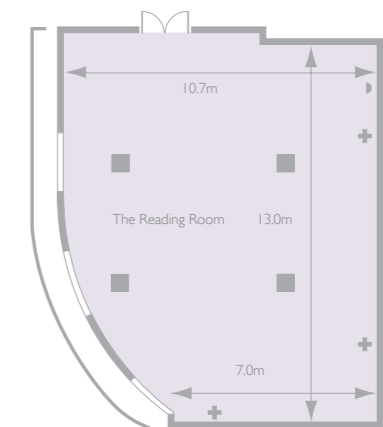

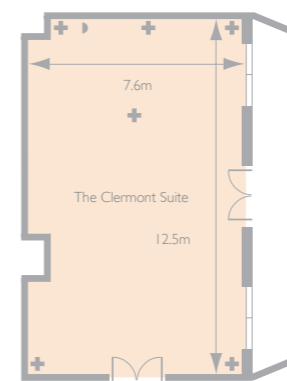

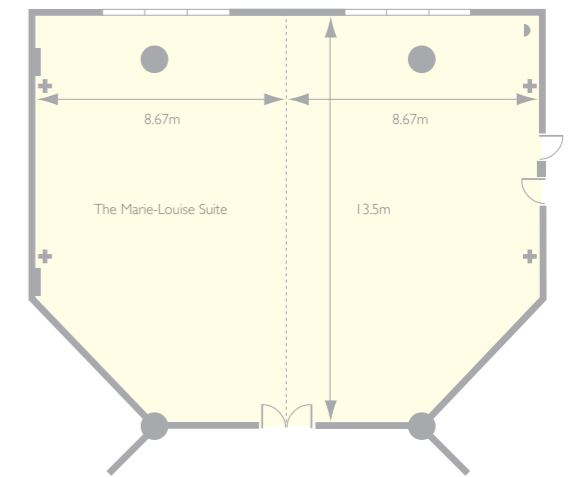

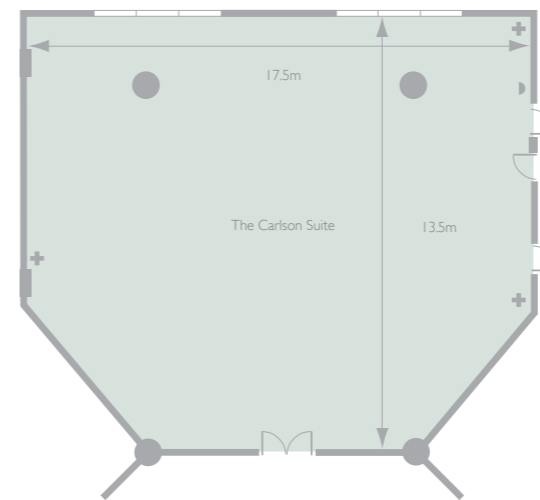

The area is also ideal if you hope to explore more of what Malta has to offer. It is just 20 minutes from the international airport and the capital Valletta, as well as within easy reach of top attractions including the prehistoric temples, the walled city of Mdina and the picturesque southern fishing villages of Marsaxlokk and Marsascala.

OUR VENUES

The Choice is Yours

The right venue will really set your event apart – catapulting it onto another level and ensuring it ticks all the right boxes.

The Radisson Blu Resort, St Julian's has venues to suit every occasion, from intimate meetings to opulent lunches and dinners. Of course the hotel also has the amenities to match, including top food and beverage options, dedicated business facilities and complimentary Wi-Fi throughout.

THESE ARE OUR VENUES:

The Grand Ballroom

Overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, the hotel's Grand Ballroom is a truly exceptional venue that has, in the past, hosted everything from opulent gala dinners to cutting-edge conferences. It is a space that's got personality – with an imposing staircase, parquet flooring and high ceiling.

There's plenty of natural light streaming through the large windows and doors, leading onto a large terrace with open sea views. As a result, the Ballroom works beautifully for both day and night. It comfortably accommodates up to 600 delegates in theatre-style with a front projection, and 1,500 guests for receptions, events and parties.

The Marie-Louise Suite

Light abundantly streams through the floor-to-ceiling windows of this venue. With parquet flooring and a soundproof partition that enables it to be used in different ways, this room can host up to 150 for classroom-style meetings and presentations, and 250 people for a stand-up reception.

The space's adjacent kitchen also makes it ideal for banquets, and its breakout area overlooks the sea, thus making it perfect for coffee breaks in-between meeting sessions.

The Carlson Suite

With a very similar layout to the Marie-Louise Suite, the Carlson is equally popular for mid-size events, meetings, dinners and lunches. It also has its own adjacent kitchen and floor-to-ceiling windows, as well as a brightly-lit breakout space with unobstructed views of the sea.

This venue comfortably accommodates up to 160 people in classroom style, 250 guests in a theatre-style set-up and 300 people for cocktail receptions.

The Clermont Suite

Conveniently situated just off the lobby, this room is tailored to the needs of smaller events and meetings. It has direct access to the adjacent terrace – which is ideal for breakfast, coffee breaks or lunch in the sunshine – and can accommodate up to 60 guests for a cocktail reception, or up to 40 people boardroom-style.

The Reading Room

Located just above the lobby and with plenty of natural light, this space is perfect for meetings, press or product launches, and seminars. It can accommodate 80 delegates in theatre-style, 50 in classroom-style and 100 for a cocktail reception. It is also a favourite for intimate banquets.
