COSTA RICA

From a spectacular hillside setting, Andaz Costa Rica Resort at Peninsula Papagayo offers breathtaking views of Culebra Bay on Costa Rica's Pacific coast. The unique architecture was inspired by the organic forms and shapes of the native flora and fauna. This eco-conscious luxury resort immerses the guest in nature and celebrates the culture of Costa Rica through various touch points—ranging from interior design to on-site activities.

Costa Rica offers just the right mix of adventure and pampering. Daytime excursions may include visits to a volcano or a tropical forest, surf lessons or a canopy tour.

NEIGHBORHOOD

Located on a 2,223-acre master planned development set on a jagged pair of peninsulas that slip majestically into the warm waters of the Papagayo Gulf. Andaz guests enjoy privileged access to the amenities of the Peninsula Papagayo community, including the Arnold Palmer Signature golf course, a tennis center, Marina Papagayo, Andaz Beach House and seven additional restaurants.

Near Airport (LIR) // Rincón de la Vieja National Park // Monteverde Cloud Forest // Arenal Volcano // surfing // zip-lining and other ecoadventures

ACCOMODATIONS

Each of the 153 rooms balance modern design, with touches of character that blend into the natural surroundings. Woven textiles, solid woods and carved artifacts highlight the rich Costa Rican aesthetic. Guestrooms and suites offer a spacious balcony with breathtaking bay and tropical forest views. Four of the 21 suites feature plunge pools, and the Presidential Suite offers a private, full-sized pool.

DINING

The unique gastronomic experience of the Andaz Costa Rica Resort at Peninsula Papagayo features four themed restaurants. Each one tells a story about our culture.

CHAO PESCAO, a casual dining enclave nestled within the lush tropical forest offering a small plates menu and the mixologists' specialties, is our neighborhood place.

RIO BHONGO, a meeting point overlooking the main pool and Culebra Bay.

ANDAZ BEACH HOUSE, a casual lunch spot on Nacascolo Beach serving locally inspired favorites

OSTRA is our signature restaurant, elegant, discreet and romantic, offering all kinds of delicacies from the sea, carefully prepared using the most sophisticated culinary techniques. Open interactive kitchens allow a distinctive interaction with chefs, making guests feel as if they were visiting family or a home of a friend.
