HERITAGE

Shanghai's Legendary Landmark in the heart of the Bund, since 1929. The Far East's most legendary hotel, with more than eight-decade history, the Fairmont Peace Hotel Shanghai has long welcomed distinguished guests from all over the world, including politicians, financiers, entrepreneurs, important Chinese officials and celebrities.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE CHOICES

Fairmont Peace Hotel's six dining and entertainment venues are where heritage and haute blend to reflect the new spirit of Shanghai. Occupying the hotel's original dining quarters, the Cathay Room and its ninth-floor terrace offer inspired European cuisine. Chinese dishes are served at the exotically decorated Dragon Phoenix restaurant. Victor's is an Art Deco delicatessen offering an international café menu and showcasing the finest handcrafted pastries and artisanal breads. The mezzanine-level wine and cigar bar Cin Cin is a sophisticated retreat for sipping premium wines and enjoying imported cigars while the world famous The Jazz Bar has been revived to its full glory, with classic cocktails and nightly performances by the hotel's resident the Old Jazz Band.

MEETING AND EVENT SERVICES

Whether it is a product launch or an event in the historic Peace Hall, or a private executive retreat in our Chun Shen Room on mezzanine level offering a compelling view of the Bund, our meeting and event facilities offer the utmost in character and style. The rooftop is the ideal area for exclusive occasions from creative events to corporate launches. The eleventh-floor space has a total area of more than 1,000 square metres, making it suitable for parties of up to 800 people. With the finest view in Shanghai looking out on three sides over the Huangpu River and across the water to the incredible skyline of Pudong, the roof top can be used for any corporate event to set themselves against the most iconic sites of Shanghai—the historic Bund and the futurism of Pudong.
