

A woman with dark curly hair, wearing a long, bright orange coat and light pink boots, stands in profile against a vibrant blue wall. She is holding a small, square, light-colored handbag with a circular emblem. The scene is set on a cobblestone path. The background is a solid, textured blue wall that extends to the horizon. The sky is a pale, clear blue. A white wavy line and a white circle are overlaid on the image, highlighting the handbag and the overall aesthetic.
