The history of Hvar dates back to 384 BC when Greek settlers built the first island settlement on the Adriatic. The ancient city of Paros, modernly known as Stari Grad, was the capital of the island that today boasts six UNESCO World Heritage protections. As expected, there are many secrets on the island to uncover. Whether you opt for the land or the sea, your Hvar exploration begins at the Club, where the expert team will craft an experience tailored to your wishes.

WATER ACTIVITIES

Whether you're a fan of kayaking, diving, rafting, or sailing, Croatia is a paradise for those looking to explore the Adriatic. Speed boat excursions to the nearby islands, snorkeling, paddleboarding, windsurfing and kitesurfing are some of the most popular water activities on the Adriatic Coast.

TREKKING

The region is ideal for trekking, with many hiking paths connecting the southern and northern parts of the island through the olive trees, lavender fields, and vineyards. A popular climb is to the Hvar Fortress, which offers stunning views of the town and the sea. This 16th -century fortress watches over Hvar town and the harbor.

CULTURAL & HISTORIC SITES

The Stari Grad Plain is the best-preserved system of ancient Greek field-architecture in the Mediterranean. This UNESCO-protected World Heritage site, which is the largest and the most fertile on the Adriatic islands, covers 6 kilometers and has been virtually intact for over 24 centuries. Enjoy tasting local wine at a tavern paired with local dishes harvested straight from the plain, or visit the old shepherd's village of Humac, which is a cultural living monument full of picturesque ruins and small stone houses. Also popular is the nearby Grapčeva Cave, which abounds in stalactites and stalagmites and is home to the most prehistoric drawing found in Europe dating back to 4,000 BC.

ISLAND FESTIVITIES

Hvar Island comes to life with dozens of festivals throughout the year. Particularly popular is the Hvar Summer Festival, which attracts top names from the world of classical music with daily events in exquisite locations. The Lavender Festival in Velo Grablje, on the other hand, is known as Croatia's most aromatic festival and is an iconic event in the Hvar tourism calendar. While Maslinica Bay is a picture of peace, the party-paradise of Hvar town is just 20 minutes away by car. If you are looking to delve into the island's bustling nightlife, Hvar town clubs buzz until the early morning hours and boast top international DJs from around the world. The biggest event is the Ultra Beach Party, which brings thousands of electronic music festival-goers to Hvar town every summer.
